CHAPTER: 2

Glorified Sons of God

It was a time when little or nothing existed as it should be. For the Lord God Almighty had made the heavens and the earth, had watched for a little while, as the one that we know now as Satan had destroyed, had ruined, had brought darkness, had brought violence amongst the creatures that had roamed the earth at first. The dinosaur age that we know it as. Satan had crawled out of his pit, his hole, where he had been placed as a punishment for bringing perverseness and trafficking his wares, his God given glory and beauty in heaven. Those who followed him were sentenced with him. It was beneath the earth in a different dimension and a different realm that we now can not see. But he found his way out and he defiled the earth, the creation that was God's gift being prepared for His sons and daughters.

So, God put things right and reformed the earth and created new creatures of the sea and land. And then He created us. First man, then man with womb, called womb-man, woman. We were His trophy. His prize, His sons, His daughters. We looked just like Him. Made in His image. Beautiful to behold.

Satan in his jealous anger, partnered with the form of a snake, a serpent and crawled into the beautiful garden, the garden of Eden on earth where man and woman existed.

Satan knew that he had lost everything. That he had lost his place in the heavens, in the throne room of God, in the presence of God, in the heart of hearts on the blue stones of fire where he used to walk inside God himself. He (Satan) knew what we were destined for and he hated us for it. So in jealousy and revenge of God's great plan for His sons and daughters, he deceived Eve and stole from them the dominion, the glory, the inheritance as sons and daughters of God.

Adam and Eve were not to touch or to partake of the fruit of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. For they were not like God in such a way that they could not be contaminated by the knowledge of evil. They were not yet ready. They were not yet fully perfected in such things. Only God could eat from that tree and not be affected by evil. But Eve, she ate and convinced Adam to eat and they became aware and had knowledge of things that they were never meant to have knowledge of. They saw their own nakedness because the glory had lifted, the purity the beauty. Satan lost for them what he had lost. They could be no longer welcomed in heaven and they were bound to a physical body without the glory, which would age and finally die.

But even before the earth was created, and man and woman were placed on the earth, the Lord God, His son – the Word who was to become Jesus Christ the Messiah to the Jewish people and the Redeemer of all gentiles who would believe, the Father and the Word had made a plan. Knowing full well that if they gave the freedom of choice to their sons and daughters that there would be a fall. So they had a redemption plan in place whereby God himself would become flesh and His blood would be shed as the only acceptable sacrifice for man's sin.

And so now we have seen the outcome of that great work of redemption and we have become one people, we have become a fused people of both Jews and non-jews. We have become one race before God, being restored as sons and as daughters. Soon to be raised in our glorified bodies again just as Adam and Eve were created. In the same state of glorification that our Lord Jesus Christ now walks in.

We behold Him in His glory. His glory is such, that to look upon Him with our bare eyes, in our now fallen bodies, is too much. He is so powerful. So glorious. Yet by our spirits that have been purified and sanctified because of what Jesus did on this earth for us, we can look at our God, our Saviour, by our spirit's eyes.

It will not be long now and the harvests will come in. They will be gathered unto Him in heaven. And a new season that has been prophesied will begin. A new season, a new work, a new purpose, a new destiny, as eternal beings, that will never die, that will never fear, that will never know sorrow. We will be as Christ is now in all His glory. We will look just like Him as sons of God. The sons of God; no longer need for male and female gender, no longer need for reproduction, for multiplying in this way. We will be as the Word has promised, the sons of God, in our glorified state, in all perfection just like Christ.

EPHESIANS 2 (The Passion Translation)

God's Power Raised Us from the Dead And his fullness fills you, even though you were once like corpses, ^[a] dead in your sins and offences. ²It wasn't that long ago that you lived in the religion, customs, and values ^[a] of this world, ^[a] obeying the dark ruler of the earthly realm who fills the atmosphere with his authority, and works diligently in the hearts of those who are disobedient to the truth of God. ³The corruption that was in us from birth was expressed through the deeds and desires of our self - life. We lived by whatever natural cravings and thoughts our minds dictated, living as rebellious children subject to God's wrath like everyone else. ⁴But God still loved us with such great love. He is so rich in compassion and mercy. ⁵Even when we were dead and doomed in our many sins, he united us into the very life of Christ and saved us by his wonderful grace! ⁶He raised us up with Christ the exalted One, and we ascended with him into the glorious perfection and authority of the heavenly realm, for we are now co-seated ^[a] as one with Christ! ⁷Throughout the coming ages ^[a] we will be the visible display of the infinite, limitless riches of his grace and kindness, which was showered upon us in Jesus Christ. ⁸For it was only through this wonderful grace that we believed in him. Nothing we did could ever earn this salvation, for it was the gracious gift from God that brought us to Christ! ⁹So no one will ever be able to boast, for salvation is never a reward for good works or human striving. ¹⁰We have become his poetry, ^[a] a re-created people that will fulfil the destiny he has given each of us, for we are joined to Jesus, the Anointed One. Even before we were born, God planned in advance our destiny and the good works ^[a] we would do to fulfil it!

A New Humanity ¹¹⁻¹² So don't forget that you were not born as Jews and were uncircumcised (circumcision itself is just a work of man's hands); you had none of the Jewish covenants and laws; you were foreigners to Israel's incredible heritage; ^[a] you were without the covenants and prophetic promises of the Messiah, the promised hope, and without God. ¹³ Yet look at you now! Everything is new! Although you were once distant and far away from God, now you have been brought delightfully close to him through the sacred blood of Jesus—you have actually been united to Christ! ¹⁴Our reconciling "Peace" is Jesus! He has made Jew and non-Jew one in Christ. By dying as our sacrifice, he has broken down every wall of prejudice that separated us and has now made us equal through our union with Christ. ¹⁵ Ethnic hatred has been dissolved by the crucifixion of his precious body on the cross. The legal code that stood condemning every one of us has now been repealed by his command. His triune essence has made peace between us by starting over—forming ^[a] one new race of humanity, ^[a] Jews and non-Jews fused together! ¹⁶ Two have now become one, and we live restored to God and reconciled in the body of Christ. Through his crucifixion, hatred died. ¹⁷ For the Messiah has come to preach this sweet message of peace to you, ^[a] the ones who were distant, and to those who are near.

18 And now, because we are united to Christ, we both have equal and direct access in the realm of the Holy Spirit to come before the Father! 19 So, you are not foreigners or guests, but rather you are the children of the city of the holy ones,[l] with all the rights as family members of the household of God. 20 You are rising like the perfectly fitted stones of the temple;[m] and your lives are being built up together upon the ideal foundation laid by the apostles and prophets, and best of all, you are connected to the Head Cornerstone of the building, the Anointed One, Jesus Christ himself! 21 This entire building is under construction and is continually growing under his supervision until it rises up completed as the holy temple of the Lord himself. 22 This means that God is transforming each one of you into the Holy of Holies, his dwelling place, through the power of the Holy Spirit living in you!
