CHAPTER FIVE

THE WORD

CHAPTER FIVE: THE WORD

John 1:1

"In the beginning
was the Word,
and the Word
was with God
and the Word
was God."

The Word we now know as Jesus, was with God and was God.

The Three in One. The Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit.

As God spoke, the Word that proceeded from Him was to become Jesus the Messiah. A secret, well kept until it's time, foretold by the prophets but shrouded in mystery until the time of it's revealing and completion.

The Word, in heaven that came forth from God when he spoke, created everything we know. The Word created our world. When our rescue became necessary, the Word offered Himself to become knitted with flesh to exist as man upon the earth. This was a well planned disguise for the only begotten Son of God - the Word, to enter the earth and deliver our rescue. Fully man, yet God at the same time.

John 1:14

"The Word became flesh and dwelt among men."

The Word left His place in glory for us. He left His wealth and majesty and the magnificence of heaven and His state of glory which caused His existence to be the Three-in-One. He left all of this for us. To execute a rescue plan for us.

Jesus said in;

John 17:5

"And now, Father, glorify me in your presence with the glory I had with you before the world began."

WE are His reward and upon leaving this earthly life, He has the great privilege of presenting us to the Father.

"Here Father, another one is home" can be heard throughout heaven each time a believer enters heaven.

We are given a robe of righteousness, a crown of salvation and we are in our Father's embrace - overwhelmed and undone being in His glory.

Can anything compare to that moment?

Our mansions having been complete. Our loved ones and friends who have gone on before us to that place. The great cloud of witnesses - the faithful who have been praying and declaring and interceding and cheering us on all our earthly lives. Gifts and rewards and places to see and adventures unending.

But most of all, never to experience again fear, disease, pain, discouragement, grief, sorrow, infirmity or death or any kind of darkness and to be with our God and our Father, unseparated for ever and for ever.

To hear Him singing, to see Him dancing. To see His face, His radiance and majesty. To laugh with Him and be held by him.

We see Him dimly now, but then there will be nothing dim about our vision. Our spirits will be back where we belong - in our Father's home.

Enjoy Jesus the Word and the passionate fiery Holy Spirit. Our God, the "Three in One".
