CHAPTER EIGHT

Time Before Times

CHAPTER : EIGHT

It was a time before times and a season before seasons. You were in Me and I knew you. Before flesh was placed upon you and you were placed upon the earth. I knew you. I loved you. I sought to be loved like a Father.

I created the uniqueness of Father and son and I created this love of a Father.

I longed for love so I set you apart from Me for a time so you might know the joy of finding Me and I might know the joy of you choosing Me.

My life was no ordinary thing. I Am love, the most pure form of love and light. I wanted you - so I created you as spirit beings, with the characteristics of children.

Your innocence I cherished. There was no darkness in you.

Then I created time. I planned for the times to come.

My Holy Hosts, Angels and Heavenly Beings were my delight. I readied for what might come and I readied the earth for you.

Countless times I practiced making your flesh but soon I found a skin that was just right for you.

Made with My fingers, you bore My fingerprints and My finger indentations.

*Your form, beautiful!
A reflection of Me.*

At first you were not sure of this plan of mine, but in time, you became accustomed to My voice and saw how beautiful your flesh would be.

And here you are. On earth nearly 6,000 years now. A monument of my plan and My marking of you to be like Me.

I loved you from the very beginning and I will love you till the end.

Flesh of My flesh and spirit of my Spirit, you are perfect in form.

The light now covers the earth. You are made to respond to the light. Darkness flees the earth now in fear of you. Take charge and allow no darkness to penetrate this earth that I once gave you and have now restored to you.

I have ordered the things of heaven and you are to order the things on the earth. This is the right I have given you and the privilege.

Darkness flees at My light in you. Darkness cannot remain when My life is in you.

You have power over all the enemy's power. You have right of path before any other being on the earth. I gave this gift to you.

Use it wisely.

Use it carefully.

Create and play and build and develop as you have seen Me do in My home.

*Now, remember!
Remember My Home,
My Son,
My Holy Spirit.
Remember Me!
I Am your Father
who loves you.*
